

Las Cruces Office to Remain Open on Veterans Day to Serve Veterans and the General Public

Washington, DC- In honor of Veterans Day, Congressman Teague will meet with veterans and constituents while attending events throughout the 2nd Congressional District this Wednesday, November 11th. Additionally, on Thursday, November 12th, he will travel to Ft. Bliss for a meeting on the post traumatic stress disorder and mental health provisions recently signed into law in the National Defense Authorization Act. The Congressman will then host a Veterans Telephone Town Hall that evening. The Telephone Town Hall will allow thousands of constituents that are interested in Veterans' issues to share their ideas, ask questions of Congressman Harry Teague, and learn more about his agenda to honor and support New Mexico's Veterans. All interested media and people interested in participating in the telephone town hall should call Sara Schreiber in Congressman Teague's office at 202-225-2365.
